King

So give yourself to Jesus,
and do what honors him.
Then you will be ready
when as king he comes again.

Set your mind on what's eternal,
the truth that God does say.
Then you will look forward to that great and glorious day.

How is Jesus our king?

Jesus we obey

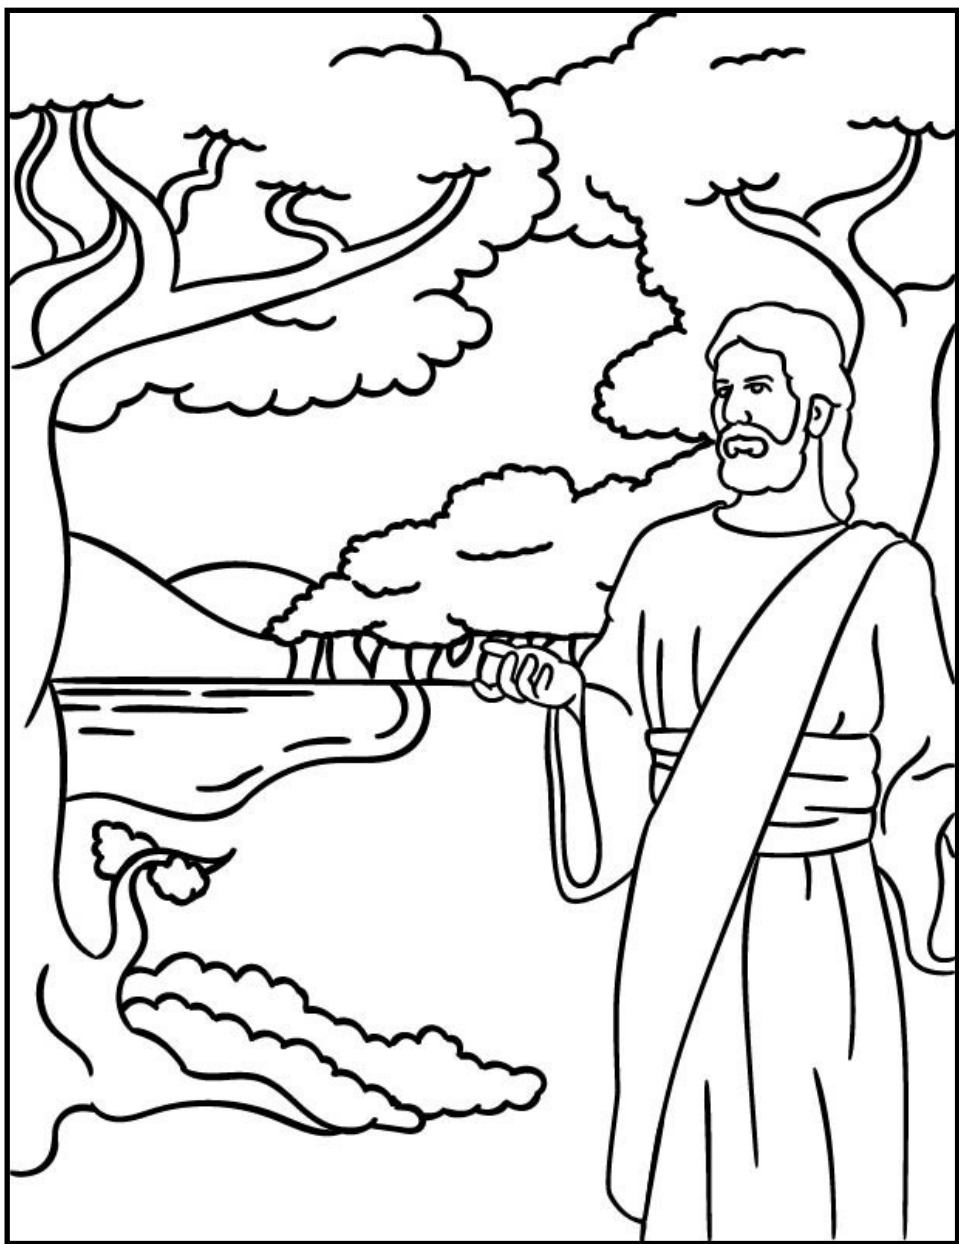

K—K—King

Coming back one day

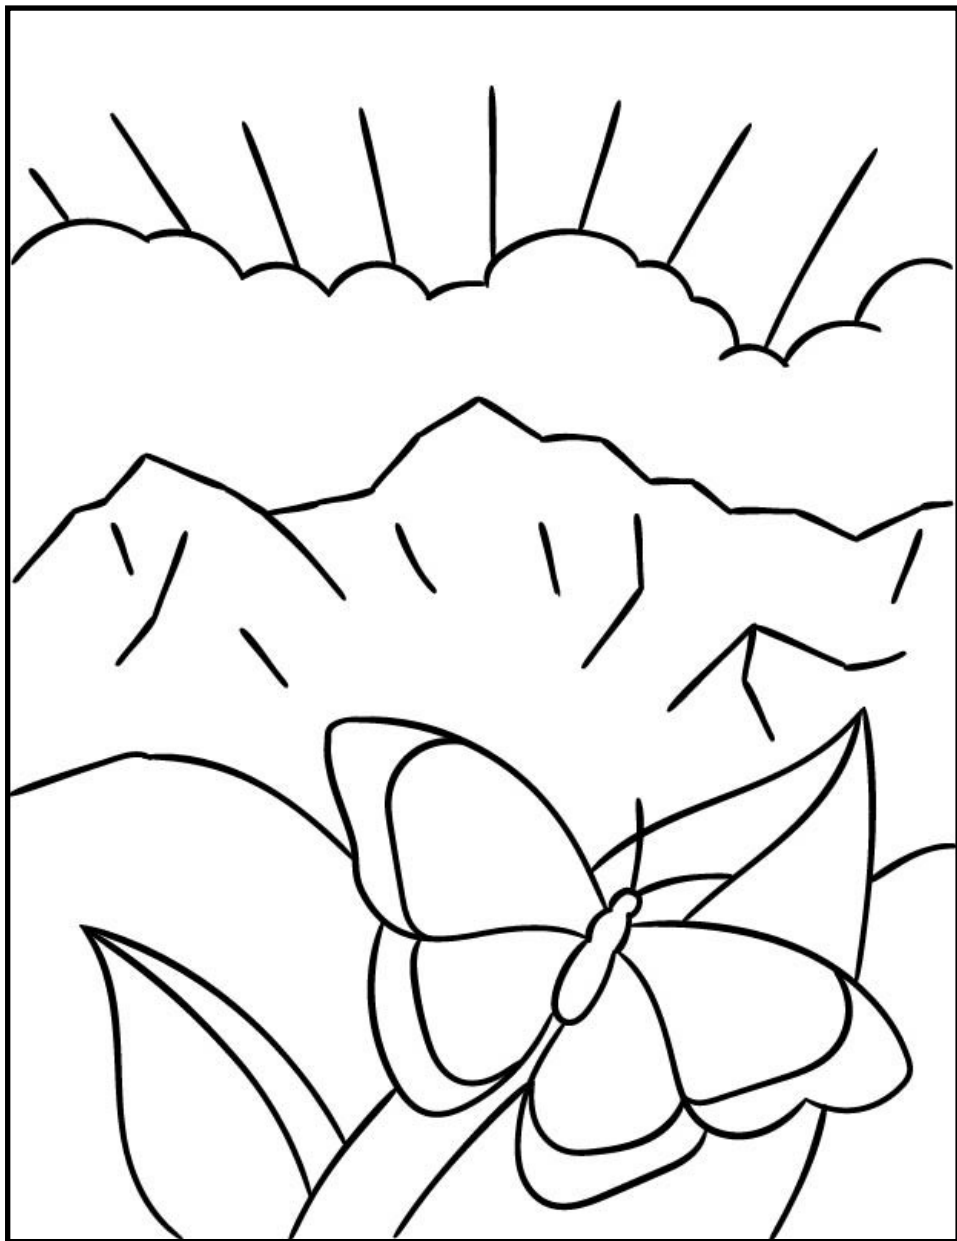

Jesus' second coming
will put all people in their place.
He will reign as Lord on earth,
the king of every race.

It is good to be Christ's subject,
underneath his loving care,
Knowing he'll return one day
with angels in the air.

A king is given power
to tell his subjects to obey;
They must pay attention
to what he has to say.

A subject wants to please the king
and do what's right and good, Giving honor to the king
by doing what he should.

Be ready for Christ's coming
and live a life that's right.
Then you'll not be frightened
when Jesus comes in might.

Some people won't be ready,
they'll be full of dread,
Because they refused to follow
the things that Jesus said.

God is our creator
which means that he's our king.
He designed the world
and made every living thing.

God says that we can see he's king
through the things he caused to be.
God's majesty and power
in creation men can see.

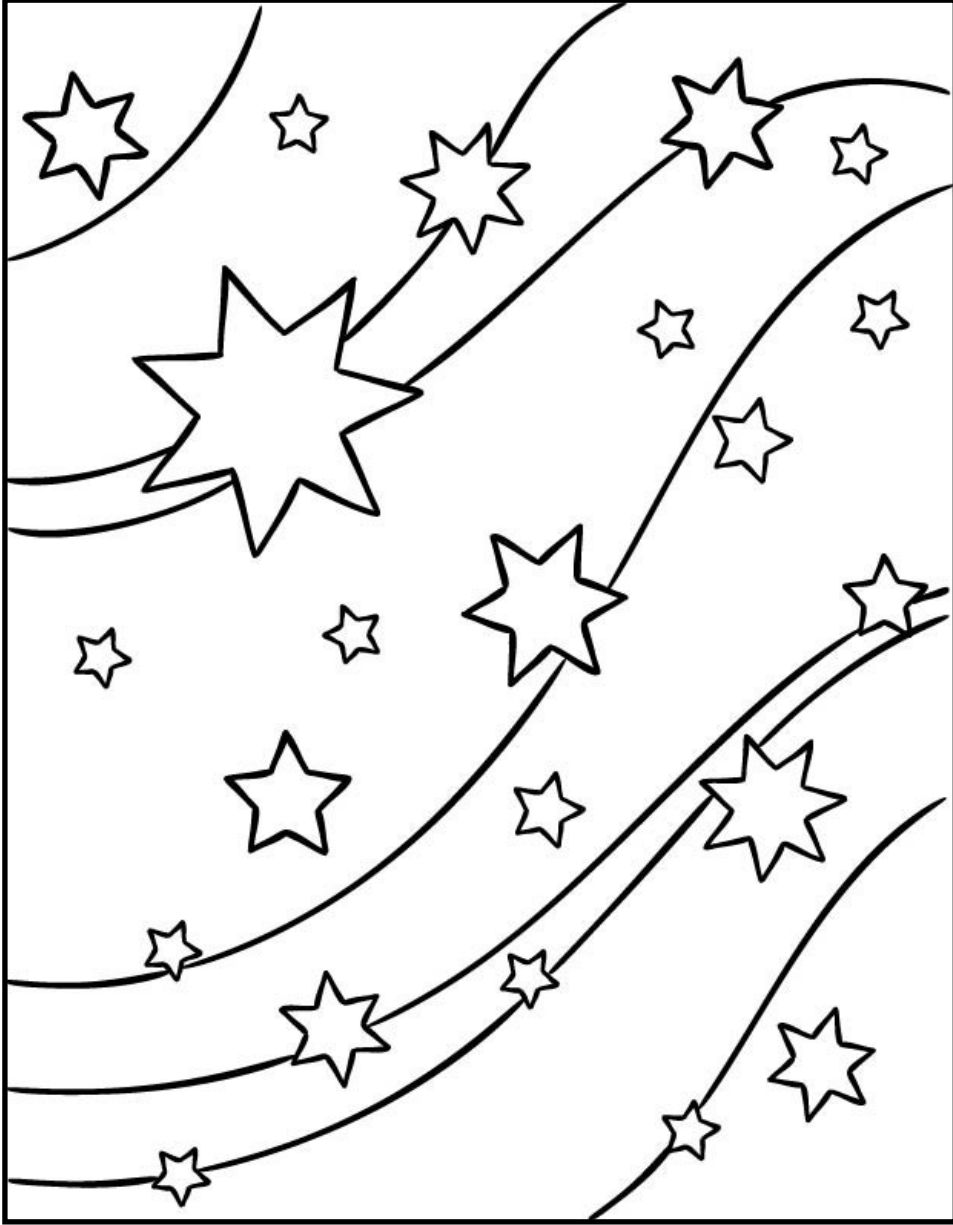

Stars seem they'll last forever
but eternal they are not.
One day they will stop shining,
no longer burning hot.

The earth it will be shaken ,
the stars will turn to dust.
We need to know the signs
and in Jesus put our trust.

Jesus will come back as king,
in great glory on a cloud.
Angels will accompany him
with trumpets blasting loud.

He will come with power;
everyone will see his face,
When he comes as king on earth
to take his rightful place.

There will be many signs
that Christ's coming will foretell,
When he comes to earth as king
and with mankind to dwell.

Jesus is eternal,
his reign will never end,
And when the stars are darkened,
to earth he'll come again.
