Resurrection

We are to trust in Jesus
as God's one and only Son, Knowing through his resurrection,
death was overcome.

We are blessed if we believe
what we have not seen, Thanking God through Jesus,
from our sin we are made clean.

What is the resurrection?

Christ rose from the dead

R—R—Resurrection

Just as he had said

Christ had risen from the dead;
they were no longer sad.
He proved that he is God,
which made them really glad.

Through his resurrection,
death he overcame;
Now forgiveness and salvation
are found in Jesus' name.

When they crucified our Lord,
it was a sad and dreadful day.
But the punishment for all our sin
someone had to pay.

Into his hands and feet
with a hammer nails were driven.
It's through Christ's pain and suffering
that we have been forgiven.

Then Jesus came to the disciples
as they were in a room, Gathered there discussing
what had happened at the tomb.

They thought he was a ghost,
they couldn't understand,
Until Jesus spoke and showed them
the nail holes in his hand.

While Jesus hung upon the cross,
people laughed at him.
Not seeing their own evil,
they were blind to their own sin.

They thought that they were doing right,
they didn't have a clue.
He said, "Forgive them Father,
for they know not what they do."

Some women went back to the tomb
his body to prepare.
Imagine their surprise
when they couldn't find it there.

The stone that covered up the tomb
had been rolled away.
The body of our Savior
in the grave no longer lay.

When Jesus died they took him down
and laid him in a grave.
Mockers still were saying,
“His own life he couldn’t save.”

The disciples were confused ‘cause they knew what he had said,
That in three days he declared,
he would rise up from the dead.

A huge rock was rolled across the opening of the tomb.
His followers were sad,
and their hearts were filled with gloom.

But as they went back to their homes
and on their beds did lay,
They trusted in the Lord their God
to work things out his way.
