We also are to be content
and not covet other things.
We're grateful and thank God
for the provision that he brings.

If you follow God's commands
your life will go quite well.
With those who seek to follow him,
God promises to dwell.

Teach us to go God's way

God says each person's life has worth,
so it's not right to kill.

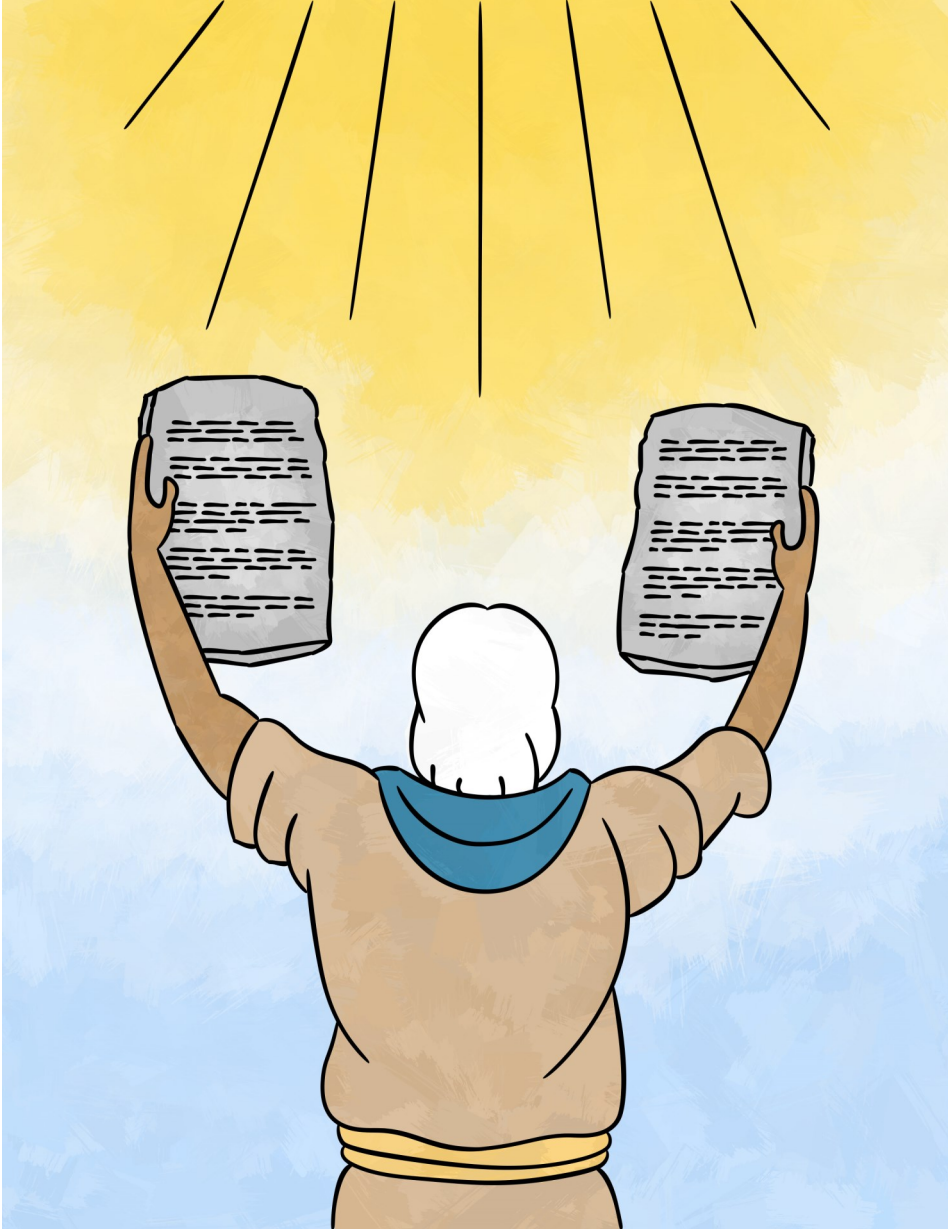

Nor is it right to tell a lie
or from other people steal.

Marriage is a promise
a wife and husband make.
Their vows they are to honor
and never, ever break.

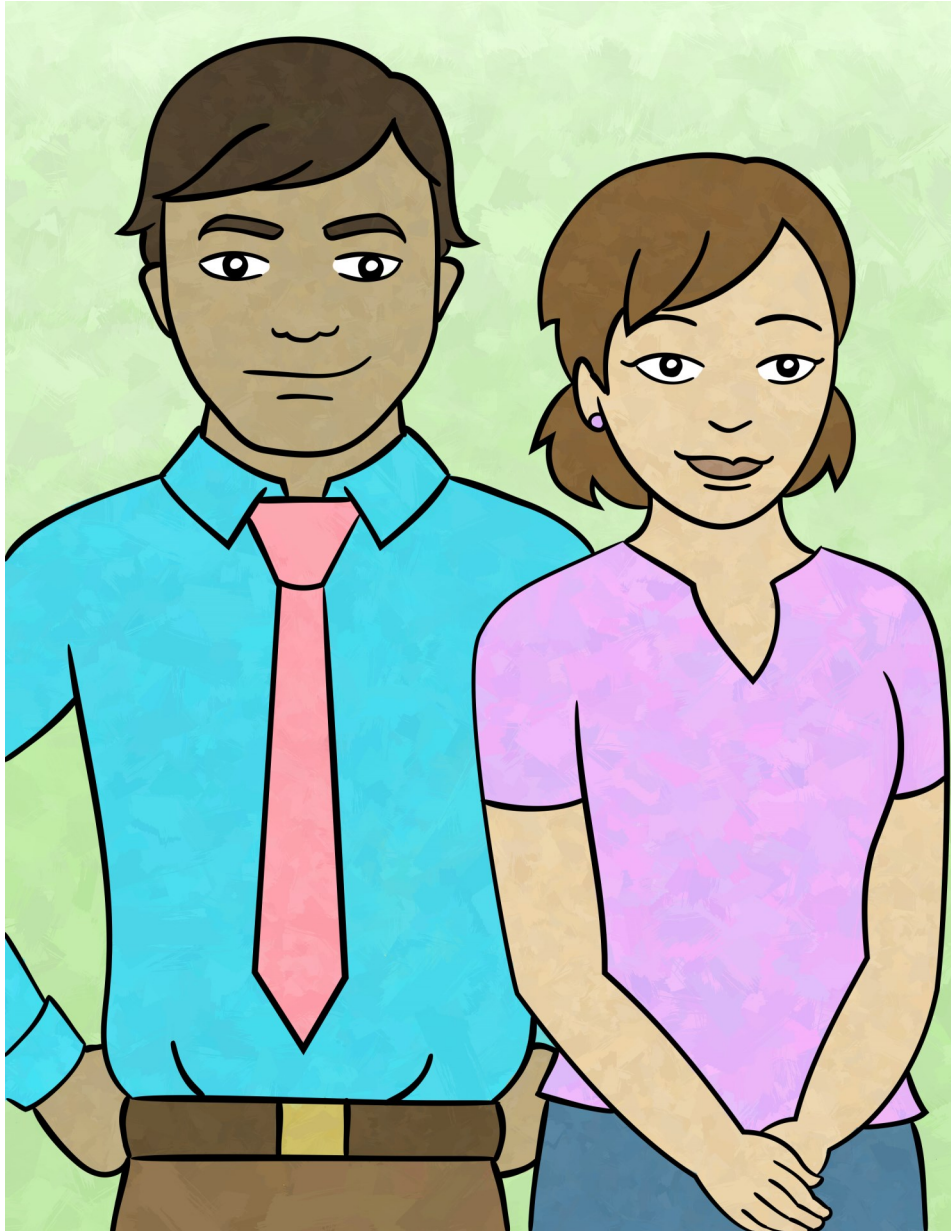

In the Bible God gives laws
we are to follow and obey.
God promises abundant life
if we choose to go his way.

God's laws are his commands,
statutes that are true.
And they should guide our lives,
the things we say and do.

Children are to honor parents,
and bring them great delight.
And the only way to do that is by choosing what is right.

Parents are authority
that children must obey.
They are to train their children
to walk in Jesus' way.

There are ten commandments
we should always keep in mind.
They are a gift God's given in the Bible to mankind.

God gave them first to Moses
on tablets made of stone.
Revealing who he really is,
the one, true God alone.

God says each week to set aside
a day to honor him.
So we go to church on Sunday and worship enter in.

Sunday is the Sabbath,
a day of peace and rest.
It is a day to focus on,
God and what is best.

The first command God says,
is to worship only him.
We're not to worship other gods
or we'll fall into sin.

We're not to worship idols
that take the place of God.
To bow down to something man-made,
does seem rather odd.

God's name is good and holy;
we're not to bring it shame.
So we are very careful
in the way we speak God's name.

To honor God's our purpose,
we watch what we do say.
And we never use God's name
in a disrespectful way.
