Yearn

God yearns for me, he yearns for you,
for us his Son did send.
Aren't you glad that Jesus,
yearns to be your friend?

And if you yearn for Jesus,
God will make you right;
Then you will follow after him,
and walk in his good light.

What does God yearn for?

Y—Y—Yearn

God wants to make us right

Y—Y—Yearn

To walk in Jesus' light

God grieves when people fight,
and bring each other harm.
He yearns to keep us safe and sound,
underneath his arm.

Because God yearns for us,
his Son he sent to earth.
Christ grieves when we reject him,
pursuing what has little worth.

God made us in his image
to have fellowship with him.
God yearns for every one of us,
his love to enter in.

God is Lord of all the earth,
and his love for us is great,
Even when we choose what's bad,
and love what God does hate.

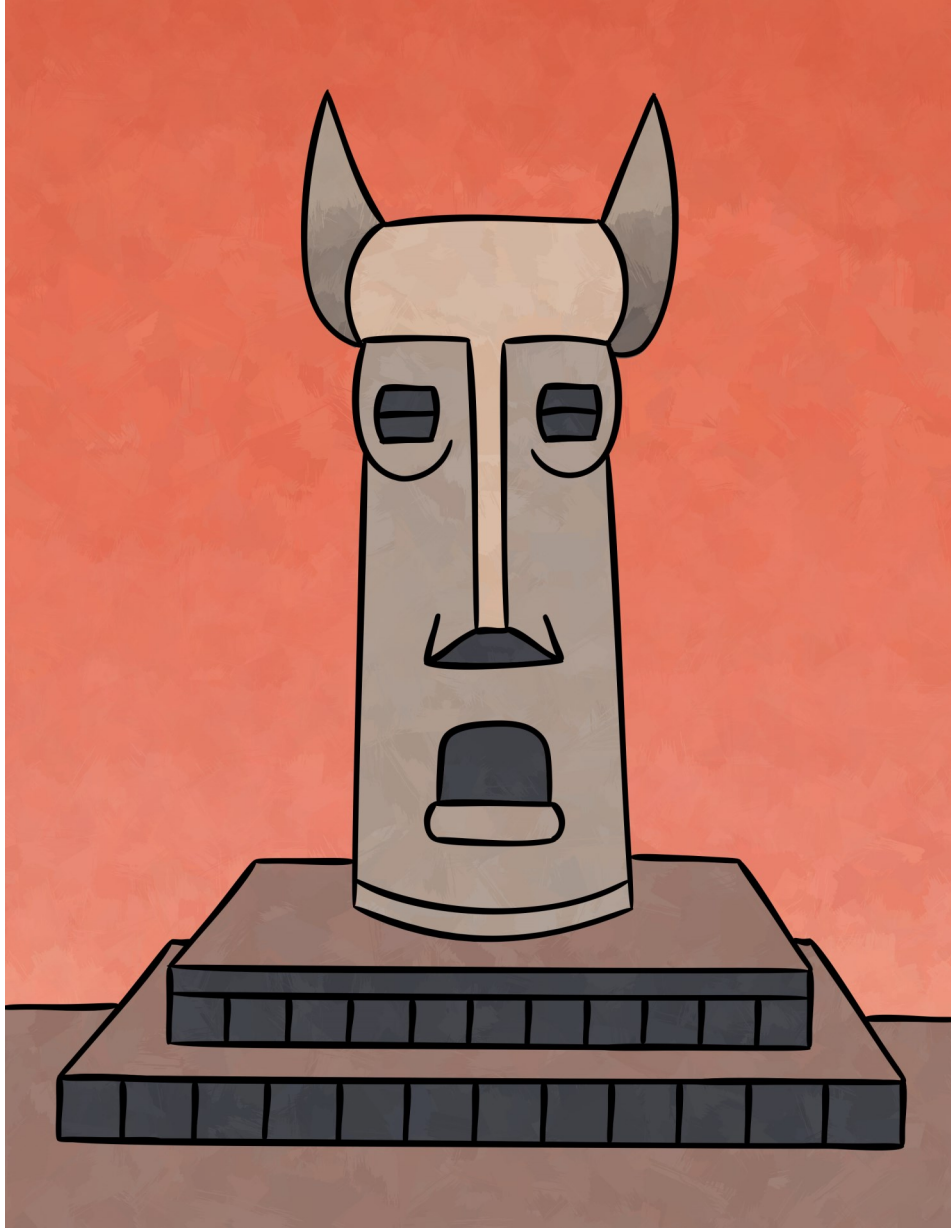

God grieves if we don't see his truth,
and reject the Son he sent.
He yearns for us to trust in him,
so we will be content.

God grieves if we don't see
the value of the cross.
Without Jesus and salvation,
we will end up lost.

God wants for every person
to turn and do what's right.
He yearns for us to follow him
and walk in Jesus' light.

God gave to us the Bible,
so we can know what's true.
He yearns for us to follow him,
give him the honor he is due.

God grieves because his truth is not
received in every nation.
He yearns for all to see him
through the glory of creation.

The greatness of the universe
reveals God's creative mind.
He yearns for us to see what's true,
and real understanding find.

God grieves when people put their faith
in idols made of wood.
He yearns for us to worship him,
in the way we should.

God knows when we reject him,
our lives will not go well.
He yearns to be the Lord our God,
and in our hearts to dwell.

God grieves when hearts are hard,
and we choose do what's wrong.
He yearns for us to worship him,
lifting praises up in song.

God knows we'll worship something;
God we easily replace.
He yearns for men to seek him,
and experience his grace.
